The National Cancer Policy Forum welcomes you to submit an abstract for a poster session held in concert with the workshop on Applying Big Data to Address the Social Determinants of Health in Oncology.

The National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine will convene a workshop in Washington, DC, on October 28-29, 2019, to examine the social determinants of health in the context of cancer, and to consider opportunities to effectively leverage big data to improve health equity and reduce disparities.

To complement workshop presentations and discussion, the Forum is hosting a poster session to highlight novel data sources and methodologies to assess and address the social determinants of health in oncology. Submissions should reflect research or programs involving the application of big data in oncology contexts, with an emphasis on examining social risk factors and health disparities.
