Overview of Episcopal Health Foundation

History

Created in 2013 when EDOT transferred the hospital system to Catholic Health Initiatives

Mission

To improve the health and well-being of the residents of the 57 EDOT counties

Total Assets

Initial funding: $1.26 billion
Value as of 10/31/19 $1.25 billion

Operating Budget

2019 operating budget: $47.5 million
Community clinics are well positioned to improve patient health and build healthy communities through community prevention partnerships with community-based organizations.

Cchh: Theory of change

- Access to healthy foods
- Reliable transportation
- Comprehensive, affordable healthcare
- Safe places to play & exercise
- Economic vitality
- High quality schools

EPISCOPAL HEALTH FOUNDATION
Policy, systems and environment have been changed to influence health conditions.

Operationalize community prevention and population health

Develop and/or participate in multi-sectoral community prevention focused partnerships

Clinic utilizes aggregated data patient clinical conditions, SDOH, and community needs from clinic and community resources

Community partner data has been collected and shared

Clinic and partners’ data is shared and discussed towards development of Community Action Plan

Clinic organizational structure aligns with values of population health

CCHH leadership is shared among clinic and community partners

Executive leadership and board adopt CCHH as strategic initiative

Chief Medical Officer adopts principles of CCHH and implements throughout the clinic practice

CCHH leadership is shared among clinic and community partners

Community partners perceive CCH clinic as credible and trusted partner in prevention work

Multi-sectoral partnerships and community action plan has been developed and implementation has begun.

Clinic has operationalized CCHH Principles into policies and procedures

Clinic is working with community partners that are trained in prevention and population health

Clinics and community partners have educated policy makers about the importance of prevention and population health

The use of clinical and non-clinical data has become an important organizational culture to drive community health improvement

Policy makers are supportive of community efforts to address population health

Improved Community Health
Heart of Texas Gardening class
Step healthy walkers