Learning Health System Summit and Principles

Charles P. Friedman, PhD
University of Michigan
August 23, 2012
Acknowledgements
My Message in Pictures
Engaging a critical mass of key stakeholders, to be, for the LHS, what the Dumbarton Oaks Conference was for the United Nations

- Planning Committee drafted initial LHS Core Values
- Feedback from Summit participants
- Review and revision of Core Values prior to the Summit
- Achievement of “trajectory to consensus” on Core Values at the Summit
- Revision of Core Values following the Summit
- Further feedback from Summit participants
- Final round of review and revision of Core Values post-Summit
- Move toward multi-stakeholder endorsement of Core Values
Planning Committee Members

• David Blumenthal, Partners HealthCare
• Harry Cayton, Council for Healthcare Regulatory Excellence UK
• Charles Friedman, University of Michigan (Chair)
• Claudia Grossmann, Institute of Medicine
• Robert Kolodner, Open Health Tools
• Rebecca Kush, Clinical Data Interchange Standards Consortium
• Kevin Larsen*, Office of the National Coordinator for Health IT
• Allen Lichter, American Society of Clinical Oncology
• Janet Marchibroda, Bipartisan Policy Center
• Michael McGinnis, Institute of Medicine
• Rachel Nelson*, Office of the National Coordinator for Health IT
• Marc Overhage, Siemens Healthcare
• Frank Rockhold, GlaxoSmithKline
• Joshua Rubin, Joseph H. Kanter Family Foundation
• Jonathan Silverstein, NorthShore University HealthSystem
• Richard Tannen, University of Pennsylvania
• James Walker, Geisinger Health System
• Joseph Kanter, Joseph H. Kanter Family Foundation, Ex Officio

* = Kevin Larsen and Rachel Nelson joined the Planning Committee effective July 18, 2012
Stakeholder Groups at the Summit (82 Participants)

In No Particular Order...

- Academic Health Centers and Care Provider Networks
- Advocacy and Consumer Organizations
- EHR Vendors
- Government Agencies
- Payer Organizations
- Pharmaceutical Industry
- Philanthropic Organizations
- Professional Associations
- Research Initiatives and Organizations
Learning Health System Core Values

1. Person-Focused
2. Privacy
3. Inclusiveness
4. Transparency
5. Accessibility
6. Adaptability
7. Governance
8. Cooperative and Participatory Leadership
9. Scientific Integrity
10. Value
So What’s Next?

• Achieving multi-stakeholder endorsement of LHS Core Values
• Building a “chaordic”, self-organizing, multi-stakeholder “learning health community”, to develop bottom-up as a coalition of the willing
• Catalyzing, leading, and participating in initiatives
  • Beginning with standards and governance
Toward a “Learning Health Community”

“Let’s all work together to give the gift of health to our children and our nation.”

-- Joe Kanter

“Chaordic” by Artist and Patient Activist Regina Holliday (Painted at the Learning Health System Summit, May, 2012)
Thanks and Contact Us

Joshua C. Rubin, JD, MBA, MPH, MPP
Executive Director
Joseph H. Kanter Family Foundation
E-mail – Josh@JoshCRubin.com

Charles P. Friedman, PhD
Professor and Director of Health Informatics
Schools of Information and Public Health
University of Michigan
E-mail – cpfried@umich.edu

http://healthinformatics.umich.edu/initiatives/lhs/national-summit