• States must play a key role in establishing regional systems to ensure consistency and sustainability

• States should:
  — Provide legal authority for regions to exist
  — Facilitate, coordinate and designate regions
  — Ensure quality assurance/improvement programs

• Sufficient funding must be available to allow states and regions to ensure sustainability