Timeline

The National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine Institute of Medicine launch the Committee on Public Health Solutions to Improve Health, with support from the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation	2009
Release of the committee's report: "For the Public's Health: Investing in a Healthier Future" – recommends the Secretary of HHS set 2030 targets for the US to achieve parity with the peer nations average for (1) life expectancy and (2) per capita health care spending	2012
The National Academies launch the Roundtable on Population Health Improvement	2013
Roundtable co-chair co-authors "Meeting the Institute of Medicine's 2030 US Life Expectancy Target" on furthering the first part of the IOM recommendation, published in American Journal of Public Health.	2017
Co-chair of the Roundtable on Population Health Improvement and vice-chair of committee that authored the 2012 report organize the Health Care Expenditure Collaborative* on furthering the second part of the IOM recommendation	2019
American Journal of Public Health publishes special section titled "Changing the Public's Health Story: Reducing Wasteful Medical Care Spending" featuring a suite of articles authored by Health Care Expenditure Collaborative members	2020
Health Care Expenditure Collaborative members coauthored a Health Affairs blog: "The Reallocationists Versus the Direct Allocationists" discussing investment strategies to improve population health and equity.	2021
Collaborative members Kindig, D. and Magnan, S. authored a podcast series: Population Health - The Unfinished Journey highlighting Kindig's career - for the Interdisciplinary Association for Population Health Science (IAPHS).	2022

Health Affairs Forefront publishes "Addressing Greed in Health Care: If Not Us, Who? And How?" authored by collaborative members Elliott Fisher and George Isham.

2023