

Substance Misuse Programs in Commercial Aviation: Safety First – Consensus Study Release Webinar Agenda

Tuesday August 15, 2023 1:30-3:00pm ET

VIA LIVESTREAM – PUBLIC LINK: https://vimeo.com/event/3620731

Purpose

- Present an overview of the 15-month study that led to the publishing of Substance Misuse Programs in Commercial Aviation: Safety First
- Host a public question and answer session with the study's chair and select committee members to discuss key issues from the report

(all times ET)
1:30–1:35

Welcome and Overview of National Academies of Sciences, Medicine, and Engineering (NAS)
Hannah Fuller, NAS Press Office

1:35–1:50

Background on NAS Consensus Studies and Report Origins
Dr. Dan Weiss, Director, Board on Behavioral, Cognitive and Sensory Sciences
Dylan Rebstock, Study Director

1:50–2:15

Presentation of Committee's Processes, Key Findings, and Recommendations
Dr. Richard Frank, Brookings Institution, Committee Chair

2:15–3:00

Q&A with Committee Members
Dr. Richard Frank, Brookings Institution, Committee Chair
Dr. Robyn Hacker, University of Colorado, Committee Member
Dr. Jeff Selzer, New York State Committee for Physician Health, Committee Member
Dr. Bernadette Phelan, Arizona Department of Transportation (ret.), Committee Member

Hannah Fuller, NAS Press Office, Moderator

- To submit questions for consideration, please write them in the chat box below the livestream
- Time allocated to each comment may be limited in order to respond to as many questions as possible

3:00

WEBINAR ADJOURS