

Cross-sector coalitions / legislative findings

Aggressive climate targets

- Move beyond statewide climate goals
- Targeted reductions in frontline communities

Community climate planning & air quality monitoring

- Improve air quality in frontline communities
- Use of new and existing authorities

Consumer & worker protection, just transition provisions

- Worker training, apprenticeship programs
- Business development

Health provisions, measurement of benefits

- Health outcome measurement; impact assessment
- Upfront integration of health in design of programs

Climate investments in disadvantaged communities

- Consistent with Justice 40 provisions
- Stretching beyond climate investments

Participatory Processes leading to state policy

- Boards/commissions
- Proactive outreach to frontline communities

Listen and Learn

What are the community's needs and vision for clean energy?

Relationship Building

Reflect and Integrate

Develop policy options that reflect community vision and input

Share

Create opportunities to share proposed policy options with the community for feedback

Capacity Building

Lead and Grow

Educate the community to be champions of the clean energy vision and policies and grow the movement

Impact Building

Participate in Implementation

Be an informed voice for effective policy implementation and connect the community to its benefits

Educate and Advocate

Be a leading voice for the policy and its benefits to policy makers and influencers

Movement Building

Power Building

Listen. Lead.
Share.
Theory of Action

Climate Change, Health, and Equity: A Framework for Action

