

American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists

- Founded in 1951,
currently 58,000
members
- Official Journal –
Obstetrics and Gynecology aka
‘the green journal’
- New leadership

ACOG Member Communication

- Practice advisories, committee opinions, practice bulletins – example “Vaginitis”
- Monthly newsletter & daily ‘headlines’
- Local, regional and national meetings
- Collaboration with ABOG
- Advocacy – example of expedited partner therapy

ACOG structure

- Committees – Adolescent Health, Gynecology, Obstetrics, CME, CREOG, Underserved Women, Patient Education
- “Working Group” – HIV, infectious disease/public health
- Collaboration with Centers for Disease Control and Prevention