

Evolving Crisis Standards of Care and Ongoing Lessons from COVID-19: A Workshop Series

*From Plans to Reality
Webinar #3*

Sponsored by Forum on Medical and Public Health Preparedness for Disasters and Emergencies

Planning Committee Chair

Eric Toner, MD *Senior
Scholar, Senior Scientist,
Center for Health
Security,
Johns Hopkins University*

Planning Committee

- Eric Toner (Chair), MD, Johns Hopkins University
- Asha Devereaux, MD, MPH, Sharp Coronado Hospital
- Megan Jehn, PhD, MHS, Arizona State University
- Anuj Mehta, MD, Denver Health and Hospital Authority
- Gregg S. Meyer, MD, MSc, Mass General Brigham
- Monica E. Peek, MD, MPH, MS, University of Chicago
- Jennifer Piatt, JD, Network for Public Health Law's Western Region Office
- Erin Serino, JD, Boston Emergency Medical Services
- Tener Goodwin Veenema, PhD, MPH, MS, RN, FAAN, Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health
- Michael Wargo, RN, BSN, MBA, PHRN, CMTE, HCA Healthcare
- Shandiin Wood, MPH, New Mexico Department of Health
- Matthew Wynia, MD, MPH, University of Colorado's Center for Bioethics and Humanities

Objectives

- Describe the roles of key stakeholders in the development/planning, declaration/activation, implementation, and evaluation/monitoring of CSC
- Explore the impact of COVID-19 on (1) healthcare and public health stakeholder and (2) the general public's attitudes and beliefs on CSC development/planning, declaration/activation, implementation, and evaluation/monitoring
- Understand challenges to and current or potential strategies for developing the data infrastructure, and protocol needed to maintain situational awareness and drive decision-making related to CSC development/planning, declaration/activation, implementation, and evaluation/monitoring

Agenda for Today (ET)

- 12:00 PM Opening Remarks
- 12:05 PM Setting the Stage
- 12:15 PM Implementation Case Stories
- 1:00 PM Break
- 1:10 PM Exploring Challenges - Flash Discussion Rounds
- 2:00 PM Planning Committee Reflections
- 2:10 PM Closing Remarks