

Webinar on Family Education for Newborn Screening

October 7, 2024

10:30 AM ET – 12:00 PM ET

Zoom link:

<https://nasem.zoom.us/j/96155259921?pwd=5GeWl8upjAhHTlaF2sZgysruqpbZXZ.1>

Webinar Objectives:

- Invite relevant health provider professional organizations to share their perspectives on the statement of task
- Understand the perspectives of health providers that care for pregnant people, babies, and their families on their role in family education for newborn screening
- Identify opportunities for increased education and communication with families about newborn screening
- Discuss gaps and necessary resources to support family education on newborn screening

10:30am Welcome and Introductions

Amanda Ingram, Pediatric Case Management and Follow-up Director, Family Health and Wellness, Tennessee Department of Health

10:35am Perspectives from Health Providers

Britton Rink, Mount Carmel East Hospital (American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists)

Benjamin Hoffman, Oregon Health and Science University (American Academy of Pediatrics)

Trinisha Williams, Haven Midwifery Birthing Center (American Association of Birth Centers)

Cheryl Bellamy, Henry Ford Hospital (Association of Women's Health, Obstetric and Neonatal Nurses)

11:20am The Future of Family Education for Newborn Screening

Marianna Raia, Expecting Health

11:30am Q & A

12:00pm Adjourn