

Emerging Caribbean Scientists Program at UVI

Overview

- What is ECS?
- Mission: Increase research training and promote excellence for STEM and psychology undergraduate students at UVI
- Support activities include scholarships, summer programs, research experiences, student training, mentoring, academic enrichment, outreach and recruitment efforts, curriculum development, conference presentations

Funding

National Institutes of Health

- MARC
- RISE

- HBCU-UP
- EPSCOR
- SEAS

- Space Grant
- MIRO

Others: Private donors and sponsors

Student Research Training

- Academic Year Research
 - Classroom Research Experiences
 - Mentored Research Experiences
- Summer Research Experiences
 - Extramural
 - Internal
- Seminars and Workshops
- Curriculum Development

University of the Virgin Islands

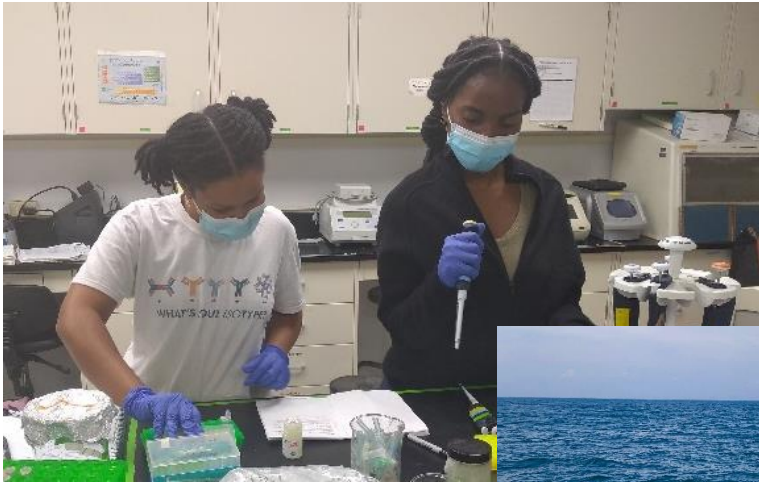

Emerging
Caribbean
Scientist

Academic Year Scholars

Summer Research Experiences

Research in the Classroom

Visiting Scientists

Science Communication

- Presentations at scientific meetings, conferences, and symposia

Steering Committee

FACULTY

- Robert Stolz, Professor of Mathematics
- Teresa Turner, Professor Emerita of Marine Biology
- Alice Stanford, Asst. Professor of Biology
- Aletha Baumann, (retired) Assoc. Professor of Psychology
- Marc Boumedine, Assoc. Professor of Computer Science
- David Morris, Asst. Prof. of Physics
- Jan Staff, Asst. Prof. of Physics
- Verleen McSween, Asst. Prof. of Biology
- Lavida Rogers, Asst. Prof. of Biology

ADMINISTRATORS

- Orpha Penn, Grants Manager
- Aimee Sanchez, Grants Manager
- Resa Berkeley, Data Specialist
- Genae Gonsalves, SEAS Coordinator

Website: <http://ecs.uvi.edu>
Email: ecs@uvi.edu

THANK YOU!