

National Symposium on Supporting Family Caregivers Working in Science, Engineering, and Medicine

MONDAY, MARCH 27, 2023

---

Purpose

- Detail the unique challenges and experiences of managing caregiving for overlooked groups (e.g., contingent faculty, international faculty, non-family caregivers, etc.)
- Interact with federal agency sponsors to learn more about the policies and initiatives of these agencies and how they use their role as funders to support caregivers
- Learn about the childcare provision in the recent CHIPS Act and how it came to be
- Answer questions from attendees

11:45-12:00      Light refreshments outside NAS 120

12:00–12:05      Welcoming Remarks, Ellen Ernst Kossek

12:05–1:05      Tracy Dumas, The Ohio State University

1:05-2:05      Djin Tay, University of Utah

2:05-2:10      Break

2:10-3:10      Lisa Wolf-Wendel, University of Kansas

3:10-3:15      Break

3:15-3:50      CHIPS and Science Act Childcare provision
Kylie Patterson, CHIPS for America

3:50-4:55      Federal Agency Panel
Moderator: Joan Williams
Panelists
    Janine Clayton, National Institute of Health
    Jessie Dearo, National Science Foundation
    Christopher Szakal, NIST
    Maggie Yancey, NASA

4:55-5:00      Closing Remarks