

Committee on Alcohol at Sea
Meeting #1 Agenda

May 28-29, 2024
National Academies Keck Center
500 5th St NW, Washington, DC

Meeting objectives

- Orient committee members to the study process
- Discuss statement of task and committee approach
- Understand sponsor perspective on the statement of task
- Gather information and perspectives from Coast Guard and major marine industry organizations

Day 1 [Room 103]

11:00 Introduction to NASEM and the Study Process

Daniel Weiss, Director, Board on Behavioral, Cognitive, and Sensory Sciences (BBCSS) of the Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education (DBASSE)

11:10 Sponsor Perspective on the Study Statement of Task

*Captain Jerry Butwid, Chief, Operating and Environmental Standards
LCDR Jake Lobb, Chief, Vessel and Facility Operating Standards Division
Martha Mannion, Program Manager, U.S. Coast Guard [virtual]*

Discussion with Committee

12:00 Lunch

12:30 Coast Guard Incidence Data and Roles Related to Alcohol Use and Mariner Licensing and Credentialing

12:30 Incidence Data

Jason Neubauer, Deputy Chief, Office of Investigations

12:45 Q&A

1:00 Alcohol Use and Promotion of Maritime Safety

Patrick Mannion, Manager, Drug and Alcohol Prevention and Inspection Program, Office of Investigations and Analysis [virtual]

1:15 Q&A

1:30 Mariner Licensing and Credentialing

Luke Harding, Office of Merchant Mariner Credentialing

1:45 Q&A

2:00 Adjourn Open Session

Day 2, May 29 [Room 106]

10:00 Welcome and Introductions

Joshua Sharfstein, Committee Chair

10:05 Panel: Perspectives from Maritime Industry Organizations

Sean Kline, Director of Maritime Affairs, Chamber of Shipping of America

Caitlyn Stewart, Vice President, Regulatory Affairs, The American Waterways Operators

Discussion with Committee

11:05 Open Session Adjourn