

How do you use systematic reviews in your work?

- Health Technology Assessment
- Coverage decisions

What most often limits the usefulness of systematic reviews for you?

- Slow timeline
- No or few comparators
- Accessibility or understanding

If the standards were updated with end users in mind, what is one change that would most improve usability for your context?

- Transparency about limitations