11:00 – 11:05 am Welcome
Sheila Burke and Daniel Polsky, Committee Co-Chairs

11:05 – 12:05 Public Comment

The National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine invites the public to provide comments to be considered by the Committee on the Review of Federal Policies that Contribute to Racial and Ethnic Health Inequities.

At this meeting (July 26, 2022), the committee welcomes input on federal policies that contribute to racial and ethnic health inequities and potential solutions.

- What are examples of federal policies that create racial and ethnic health inequities?
- What are examples of federal policies that promote racial and ethnic health equity?
- What are the most important considerations when prioritizing action regarding federal policies to advance racial and ethnic health equity?

If you would like to provide oral comments at the meeting, please send an email with your name and affiliation to HealthEquityPolicies@nas.edu (each individual will have up to 5 minutes).

Members of the public may also submit written comments for consideration by the study committee (as individuals or on behalf of an organization) via email to HealthEquityPolicies@nas.edu through September 30, 2022.

All materials and comments received will be placed in the committee's Public Access File, and may be provided to the public upon request. Materials and comments received may also be included in the committee's report.
