

A Public View of Resilient Supply Chain Initiative

E.O. 14001 Public Health Supply Chains (Jan. 21, 2021)

- Secure supplies for COVID-19 pandemic.
- Scope: Inventory of Needs; Pandemic Resilience; Strategic National Stockpile.
- Agencies: State, DoD, HHS, DHS.
- U.S. Strategy on Public Health Supply Chains (July 2021)
- Bilateral discussions on medical supplies (EU, Japan).

E.O. 14017 America's Supply Chains (Feb. 24, 2021)

- Create secure, resilient and diverse supply chains to ensure economic prosperity and national security.
- Secure pandemic/health, cyber, climate/ disaster, economic-related vulnerabilities.
- Cooperate with global partners
- Four Critical Sectors (100 Day Reports – June 8, 2021)
 - Semiconductors and Advanced Packaging (DOC)
 - Critical Minerals and Materials (DoD)
 - Electric Vehicle Batteries (DOE)
 - Pharmaceuticals and APIs (HHS)
- 83 recommendations.
- Six Industrial Bases (One Year Reports – Feb. 2022)
 - Defense (DoD); Energy (DOE); Transportation (DOT); Info. & Comms. Technology or ICT (DOC & DHS); Public Health (HHS); Agriculture & Food (USDA).

U.S. efforts for partnership to mitigate supply disruptions

Apr	May	June	July	Aug	Sept	Oct	Nov	Dec
Japan Taiwan INDO-PACIFIC			Japan Australia ROK VP Visit to SE Asia		Quad Summit	ROK* Taiwan* Singapore
Switzerland France EUROPE			UK France Germany		US-EU TTC
AMERICAS			Canada*	Mexico*		Mexico Brazil*

Increase regional engagement through multilateral mechanisms and expand coordination on transparency, incentives, standards, and R&D to realize complementary supply chain strategies.