

Thank you for your interest in the workshop, “Understanding the Introduction of Pathogens into Humans- Preventing Patient Zero: A Workshop”. As you prepare to attend the workshop in person at the National Academies’ NAS building (2101 Constitution Ave. NW Washington, DC 20418; map at the end of this memo), please note the following important information and let us know if you have any comments or questions in advance of the meeting:

Getting to the NAS Building (workshop location)

NAS Building
2101 Constitution Ave. NW
Washington, DC 20418

Room: NAS 120

Parking and entrance

- Driving:
 - Limited parking is available for meeting attendees in the visitors parking area (surface lot) of the NAS Building. Enter the parking lot on 21st street (see attached map).
 - An attendant will either meet you at the gate, or you may need to push a button to call one. State your name and say that you are there for the Forum on Microbial Threats’ workshop. You will need to show a photo ID before being admitted to park.
 - Parking is provided on a first-come basis, and overflow is directed to public parking garages.
 - The public parking facilities closest to the NAS Building are Colonial Parking (20th Street, NW, between E and F Streets) and Columbia Plaza (23rd and Virginia Avenue, NW).
- Walking:
 - Main entrance is located at 2100 C Street NW. Please do not use the entrance on Constitution Ave as it is closed at this time. A map of the correct entrance is at the end of this memo.
 - You will need to show your photo ID to the security officer upon entering the building.

The workshop will be utilizing NAS 120 as the main conference room for both days. Registration, sign in, refreshments, and onsite breakfast/lunch will be located in the NAS West Court.
