

Third Meeting of the Committee to Review the Long-term Operations of the Central Valley Project and State Water Project

May 6-8, 2024

Gaia Hotel
Anderson, CA

Draft Public Agenda

Goals of the Meeting:

- 1. to understand the Shasta Cold Water Pool Management Action*
- 2. to understand relevant scientific (and other) issues that could affect CVP monitoring, modeling, and decision making (wrt Shasta cold water pool management).*

Monday May 6, 2024

8:00-5:00 Field Trip from Sacramento to Redding including Red Bluff Diversion Dam, Shasta Dam, and Livingston Stone Fish Hatchery

*Limited public spaces available—participants must provide their own transportation.
If interested, contact Maya Frey at MFrey@nas.edu.*

Tuesday May 7, 2024

Open Session

9:00-9:15 Welcome, Introductions, Recap of Meeting 2, Discuss Meeting 3 Goals and Agenda
Peter Goodwin, Committee Chair

9:15-10:15 Introduction to Winter-Run Chinook in the Sacramento River
Rachel Johnson, Eric Danner, SW Fisheries Science Center

10:15-10:45 Juvenile Production Estimate
Speaker tbd

10:45-11:00 Break

11:00-12:00 Shasta Cold Water Pool Management: Action, Objectives, Metrics, Monthly Operations
Randi Field, USBR

12:00-1:00 Lunch

- 1:00-2:00 Monitoring Relevant to Shasta Cold Water Pool Management
Tom Patton, Randi Field, USBR
- 2:00-3:00 Modeling relevant to Shasta Cold Water Pool Management
Randi Field, Elissa Buttermore, John Hannon, Josh Israel, USBR
- 3:00-3:15 Break
- 3:15-4:15 General Q&A with presenters and a panel of respondents
- 4:31-5:00 Open-mic Session

Wednesday May 8, 2024

- 9:30–10:30 Panel for Tribal Input
- 10:30–5:00 Closed Session