

Session 3: Practical Barriers I – Patient Selection and Engagement

Doris Wang, MD, PhD

Associate Professor

Department of Neurological Surgery

University of California San Francisco

Disclosures

- Grant support:
 - NIH R01NS130183 (PI)
 - NIH R01NS130066 (Co-I)
 - Michael J Fox Foundation: Therapeutic Pipeline (PI)
 - Burroughs-Wellcome Fund: CAMS (PI)
- Consultant:
 - Boston Scientific Inc.
 - Medtronic Inc.
 - Insightec Inc.
 - Iota Biosciences Inc.
 - Clearpoint Inc.

So you are going to get brain surgery...

Demystify the process

Is it the right choice for you?

- Understanding the treatment, the procedure, and the risks
- Set expectations about what can and cannot be treated
- Personalize the surgery to the patient

How to optimize surgical outcome?

- Patient selection
- Setting clear expectations
- Practice good surgical techniques
- Anticipate potential problems and have contingency plans in place
- COMMUNICATION