

Call for Abstracts: Future of Pharmacy Poster Session

The workshop planning committee on Innovations in Pharmacy Training and Practice to Advance Patient Care invites you to submit an abstract for the poster session taking place on May 29, 2025 as part of the Workshop on Innovations in Pharmacy Training and Practice To Advance Patient Care hosted by the National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine (The National Academies).

INSTRUCTIONS

- All submissions should be framed around “the future of pharmacy” within one of these five pillars:
 1. Meeting the health-related needs of individual patients and populations;
 2. Developing an expanded workforce;
 3. Attracting potential pharmacy students into the profession that emphasizes next generation training programs;
 4. Creating a financially stable workforce, for direct patient care and beyond, that is resilient to dynamic system changes, adaptable for the unpredictable, and is Future Proof;
 5. Prioritizing the well-being of the pharmacy workforce by creating policies to mitigate burnout (a key component of high-quality health care).
- Each person can submit up to 2 abstracts as an author or a co-author (≤400 words/abstract)
- De-identified abstracts will be reviewed by workshop planning committee members
- Dates to Remember:
 - March 10: Deadline for abstract submission. SUBMIT HERE
 - March 21: Notification of acceptance decisions
 - April 15: Instructions sent to in-person poster session attendees (e.g., poster dimensions)
 - May 29: Poster session, 5:30-7pmET (at the reception)
 - May 29-30, 2025: Workshop hosted by the National Academies
- Required elements of the abstract:
