

NINDS Division of Translational Research Career Opportunities

NINDS Division of Translational Research Career Opportunities

Health Program Specialist (HPS; GS 11-13)

- Provides scientific support in the planning, coordination, evaluation, and communication of neuroscience research to internal and external stakeholders
- Evaluates grant programs supported by NINDS by tracking applications, success rates, activities, and spending of grant recipients to inform future funding and policy decisions
- Provides scientific administration support to Program, Division, and Office Directors

Scientific Program Manager (SPM; GS 14-15)

- Provides program and project oversight and technical guidance to Program Directors, Project Team members, PIs, and stakeholders
- Reviews, analyzes, evaluates, and makes recommendations on project plans and objectives to determine if project plans are feasible
- Manages a portfolio of grants, cooperative agreements, and/or contracts as applicable

Health Scientist Administrator (HSA; GS 13-15)

- Performs scientific and administrative review and analysis of applications/proposals
- Develops, coordinates, and administers grants, cooperative agreements, and contracts

Contracting Officer Representative (COR; GS 13/14)

- Monitors contract performance and ensures contractors perform work

Director, Biologics and Biotherapeutic Development (Senior Biomedical Research Officer Appointment)

- Oversees the Blueprint Neurotherapeutics Network (BPN) for Biologics and Ultra-rare Gene-based Therapy (URGenT) Network
- Manages a team overseeing a portfolio of neurotherapeutics development projects from early discovery to late development